MORE POWER.

The Bill Offered for a Substitute for Wilson's Retaliatory Measure.

opyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press. Washington, August 30th.—At the re-uest of Chairman Belmont the House mittee on Foreign Relations has unanimously agreed to report favorably on Monday the following bill as a substitute for that introduced by Mr. Wilson of Minnedent to protect and defend the rate of American fishing vessels, American fishing vessels, American fishing vessels, American fishing vessels, American trading and other vessels, approved March 4, 1887.

Section 1. Be it enacted, that whenever the President may deem it his duty to exercise any of the powers given him, by the Act of March 3, 1887, it shall be lawful for the President in his discretion, by proclanation to that effect, to suspend, in whole or in part, transportation across the territory of the United States in bond and without payment of duty on goods, wares and merchandise imported or exported from any foreign country from or to the British Dominions in North America.

Section 2. That whenever the President shall be satisfied that there is any discrimination whatever in the use of the Welland canal, the St. Lawrence river canals, the Chambly canal, or either of them, whether by tolls, drawbacks or the refunding of tolls or otherwise, which is or which may be detrimental to the interests of the United States or any of its citizens, it shall be lawful for the President, in his discretion, to issue a proclamation to that effect; whereupon there shall be collected tolls of 20 cents per ton upon every foreign vessel and her cargo passing through either the Sault Ste. Marie or the Saint Clair Flats canal, and the Secretary of the Treasury may be authorized to direct any of the Customs officers to collect tolls levied under this Act; or the President may, in his discretion, when he is satisfied there is any such discrimination, prohibit the use of said canals to any such foreign vessels. The President, when satisfied that such discrimination has ceased, may issue a proclamation to that effect, in his discretion, whereupon the tolls authorized by this Act shall no longer be collected, and said prohibition, if ordered, shall cease.

Section 3. That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make any regulations needful to carry this Act into effect.

PRINTER BENEDICT. The Government Printing Office Alleged to be Sadly Mismanaged.

Copyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press. Washington, August 30th .- The minorty report of the investigation of the Govrnment Printing Office was presented by Dr. Gallinger to-day. It commences by nying that the investigation was sought by the Republicans, and is made up of denials of the charges made against Mr. Rounds, and of counter-charges against Mr. Benedict. It takes issue with the majority in every finding. The Government Printing Office is alleged to be marked by ncompetency and partisanship, such as to ustify grave apprehensions on the part of Congress. The treatment of Union soldiers, widows and orphans of soldiers, skilled and competent mechanics and other employes of the office has been shameful, and of itself justifies his summary removal. Cases of flagrant violation of the Civil Serv. ice Act are numerous. He concludes Enough gross violations of the law and evidences of incompetency are shown by the testimony to warrant the immediate removal from office of the Public Printer."

A POLITICAL MACHINE-FREE PRINTING FOR CLEVELAND. A big part of the report treats of private work done at the Government Printing Office. Among other things it is said that the testimony shows beyond a doubt that a series of speeches made by President Cleveland in various cities on his business trip in the autumn of 1887, had been printed in advance in the Government Printing Office, clear violation of the law.

The minority declare that for the first time in the history of the Government Printing Office that vast workshop has been turned into a political machine, men being discharged solely because they were Re-publicans, and others appointed solely because they were Democrats

War Vesseis Provided for in the Naval Appropriation Bill. Copyright. 1888, by the California Associated Press.]

Washington, Angust 30th.—The naval appropriation bill, which the President has signed, was so hacked at and tinkered in the York meeting the protracted conference that its most important features were generally lost sight of. It provides for the addition of seven new vessels to the navy, at a cost, exclusive of armament, of about $10,000,000, and premiums for increased speed. There is to be one armored cruiser of 7,500 tons, to cost, exclusive of armament, $3,500,000, She is to carry 12-inch armor and to go 19 knots, and will be the most powerful of the new cruisers, being about 1,000 tons larger than either the Maine or Texas. Besides the big fellow the bill provides for one armored steel cruiser of 5,300 tons, costing 21,000,000, and tree transports. ing $1,890,009, and two armored steel cruisers of 3,000 tons, costing $1,100,000 each. The first of these is to show a maxrum speed of 20 knots, and the other two 19 knots, with $50,000 premium for each quarter of a knot above, and $50,000 forfeit message. He said if the President should, without consulting Congress, suspend or abrogate any of the treaty regulations made with the consent of Congress, he would assume an autocratic power equal to that of the most despotic European monarch. George's argument was to the effect that the President could not have taken any other course in this fisheries question that that which he has pursued without exceeding his executive powers.

Senator Cullom followed George with a speech on the message of the President. After reviewing the various vacillating pol icies of the President on most of the great issues before the country during his Administration, he dwelt at length upon his course in regard to the fisheries ques-tion. He said he would like to see the President exercise the powers already at his command, and when he saw the Presi dent ready to protect the rights of American citizens he would be willing to grant him more power, if necessary, but he was unwilling to grant further concessions to the President simply because he sent a message to Congress asking for it.

At the conclusion of his speech Senator Cullom, in view of the fact that from the President's message it is learned that certain treaty articles are no longer in force, he offered a resolution requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to inquire why it is that the transportation of goods in bond can continue. The resolution was laid over. The fortifications appropriation bill was next considered. The resolution of Senator Hawley, adding another Ordnance Officer to the Board which will have charge of the proposed work, was adopted.

Much discussion ensued over the clauses of the bill providing for the making of guns. Senator Dolph thought the appropriation too meagre. Formidable ports, ne said, were more needed than great Senator Hawley was also dissatisfied with he gun clause of the bill. Reagan favored recommitting the bill, and to settle the discussion the Senate adjourned without taking action.

GENERAL NOTICES.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

WHAT CHANGES!

Old Man Has Seen.

Levi Reed, of Fairfield, Solano county, who is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Norton, was present at the meeting of the "Veterans of '40" last evening, and was introduced by John Rider. He addressed the club at length, and in a manner surprising to those who had only conversed with the venerable man, for he is one of the most retiring, modest and slow-speaking of men, and while highly intelligent and of fine memory, one would not think him the man to interest a public meeting—but he did. Mr. Reed is older than any member of the Veteran Club. When he was born Washington had been dead but eight years and the United States time to the tounty our National Convention met in St. Louis and nominated for President and Vice-President of these sons, Grover Cleveland and Allen G. In the superior court of the county of Sacramento, State of California. In the matter of J. J. KILEY, doing business as J. J. KILEY & CO., an insolvent debtor. J. J. KILEY & CO., having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said J. J. KILEY, doing business as J. J. KILEY & CO., is hereby declared to be insolvent. The Sheriff of the County of Sacramento is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said J. KILEY, insolvent debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association, for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order this Court, except as herein ordered. It further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Honorable J. W. Armstrong, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Said Court, on the 10th day of SEPTEMBER, 1888, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts, choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

of SEPTEMBER, 1888, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts, choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered that the order be published in the DAILY RECORD-UNION, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Sacramento, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of the creditors. And it is further ordered that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

Dated August 8, 1888.

JOHN W. ARMSTRONG,
JUGGE of the Superior Court.
